BICENTENNIAL SOUVENIR BOOK

Photographic Release Form

The Town of Vernon is producing a library quality "Souvenir Book" to be available for resale during the Bicentennial Celebration year of 2008 and after.

We request your permission to reproduce the photographs identified below in this book. This publication will chronicle the 200 years from October 13, 1808 to the present time in pictures and captions, so it will also be important to verify completely the names, places and other historic data relative to the photos you provide. Please mark the back of the photos or enter the information below to ensure there is no confusion when reprinting.

Also, please indicate whether you want these photos returned, or whether they are copies and can be kept for inclusion into the town's archives, or presented to the Vernon Historic Society for inclusion into theirs.

I HEREBY GRANT PERMISSION for the photos below to be reproduced for inclusion in this publication, the Town of Vernon's BICENTENNIAL SOUVENIR BOOK. I also certify that the photos I am submitting are mine to submit, and will take full responsibility for any repercussions that arise from third party claims of unauthorized publication.

I WISH TO HAVE THESE PHOTOS RETURNED after the committee has reproduced them for publication. Please send to the address below:
